ARMOUR PROTECTION FLEECE

Armour Protection Fleece is made from 160 gsm non-woven synthetic fibres with a tacky anti-slip coating on the under-side, and a waterproof layer on the top-side. This ensures that it stays in place without sliding around on the finished surface, and protects from any liquid penetration. Since it is soft and non-abrasive, it protects from scuffs and scratches especially on smooth high shine surfaces. Commonly used to protect hard floors, cabinets, countertops, shower bases, stairs, and more.

Often used in conjunction with Armour Tape.

ARMOUR PROTECTION FLEECE - BREATHABLE

Armour Protection Fleece - Breathable offers the same great protection as the regular Armour Protection Fleece, but with the Armour Breathe Technology too! It breathes with a rating of 25g/m<sup>2</sup>/24h Vapour Permeability which allows fresh floors to breathe whilst being protected. It is made from 160 gsm non-woven synthetic fibres with a tacky anti-slip coating on the under-side, and a waterproof layer on the top-side. This ensures that it stays in place without sliding around on the finished surface, and protects from any liquid penetration. Since it is soft and non-abrasive, it protects from scuffs and scratches especially on smooth high shine surfaces. Commonly used to protect hard floors that need time to breathe and cure such as concrete, hardwood, and more.

Often used in conjunction with Bulldog Board Tape - Breathable.

ARMOUR DEFENDER-GUARD

Armour Defender-Guard is a high strength temporary floor protection solution that can absorb liquids without weakening it. The top-side consists of an embossed pattern which offers extreme grip under foot, along with the anti-slip coating on the under-side to avoid it moving on the finished surface. Due to the type of material, Defender-Guard lays flat every time without recoiling, which allows the user to lay it down quickly and effectively. Since it is high strength, it is re-usable and can be cleaned by vacuum or by wiping it down, and easily rolled up for re-use. Defender-Guard offers - ARMOUR SPILL PROTECTION - LAYS OUT FLAT AND FAST - RE-USABLE - SLIP RESISTANT
Often used in conjunction with Armour Tape.

“After using this material on multiple projects to protect a variety of surfaces from ceramic tile to carpet tile I have not found another product that offers the versatility and quality of protection that Axiom Fleece provides. The ease of installation and removal is also a huge advantage and saves time and money on every project I have completed. To add to this the waterproof protection is second to none and I have yet to have a issue with paint etc. seeping through to the finished floor beneath. All around great product at a reasonable price.
